

Notice on Amendment to
“Terms and Conditions for Accounts and Related Services for Individuals” and “Personal Information and Privacy Protection Policy” of DBS Bank (China) Limited

1 September 2022

Dear Valued Customer,

Thank you for banking with DBS China.

Our Terms and Conditions for Accounts and Related Services for Individuals (“Account Terms and Conditions”) have been updated recently according to Personal Information Protection Law (PIPL) requirements. Key updates include but are not limited to:

- change form “any Branch” into “Cash Service Branch” based on real situation of cash deposits and withdrawals;
- revision on Personal Data and Data Protection clauses to protect your personal information and privacy.

The above updates will not have any negative impact on your rights and interests with the Bank. Please click here to read the updated version of the Account Terms & Conditions, which will take effect and replace the current version from 1 October 2022.

In addition, our "Personal Information and Privacy Protection Policy" has also been updated. Please click here to view the "Personal Information and Privacy Protection Policy" (updated version). For the various products or services of the Bank that you have applied for or will use, you understand and agree that the Bank will process the personal information (including the personal sensitive information involved) provided by you in accordance with the relevant transaction documents (including the authorization terms thereunder) and the updated version of the "Personal Information and Privacy Protection Policy".

You will be deemed to have consented to the above updated documents if you continue to use our services after they take effect.

Thank you once again for your unwavering trust and support. If you have any questions, please consult your relationship manager or call our hotline at 400 820 8988.
